Roundtable joined by SBC members, reports heard & trash talked

Supervisor Sharon Bronson held her quarterly Business Roundtable last Thursday. She was informally joined by members of the Pima County Small Business Commission — chair Ken Goodman, Lyra Done, Shelby Hawkins, Gabrielle David, and Mark Finchem — and Marion Hook who is the Tucson Small Business Commission liaison with the county commission. They were accompanied by Pima County staff members Pat Cavanaugh and Tom Moulton.

The group heard reports from several local representatives.

Bety Allen of the Ajo District Chamber of Commerce noted that the relocation to the old railroad depot has resulted in many more visitors and increased gift shop sales.

Tracy Taft of the International Sonoran Desert Alliance reported that the current Plaza construction phase is done after 3 years of work and $2 million invested in restoration. She says the Plaza now offers small affordable commercial space to small businesses. Some have already moved in but there is room for more tenants.

Aaron Cooper of ISDA's Ajo Works stated that economic development needs a workforce. Training has been given to agricultural interns and they have an apprenticeship program that leads to participants becoming journeyman in maintenance and repair.

Carmine DeBonis of Pima County Development Services noted that the last hearing about the medical marijuana dispensary's request for a conditional use permit will be May 7.

DeBonis also noted that they are "working to cut through the layers" to make development easier in Ajo. One concept would allow a packet to be submitted instead of pieces at different times. "We want to remove the barriers to accomplishment," he said, "and recognize the unique qualities of different areas."

Robert Vaughn of Pima County Natural Resources, Parks & Recreation, said the renovation project at Walker Park is progressing. Work includes new lights, air conditioning, and remodeling the kitchen. The Curley gym is also getting updated with major repairs to the roof and interior. Vaughn also noted the dog park project is moving forward.

Dan Morales of Ajo Ambulance said the PCWINS radio project is almost ready to go. Everything should be in place by January 2014. He acknowledged the work of Supervisor Bronson in getting the ambulance service and the local fire departments radios that would have cost over $200,000.

Morales also said that the service has been in its new building about three years, noting the large training room at the facility has become a popular place for meetings and events.

Jim Richardson introduced himself as the new acting superintendent of Organ Pipe Cactus National Monument. He mentioned that the Sequester has cut 6% from the parks' budget, which meant a $230,000 decrease in funds for Organ Pipe.

Lt. B.J. Clements reported that PCWINS training is going to be made available to the ambulance service and two local fire departments. He also said that he is expecting three new deputies.

Linda Lam noted that the library has many services, including computer help that can aid people with job searches.

Bronson announced she wanted to "talk trash." The county is getting out of the solid-waste business and will be contracting with an outside firm to run its landfills and transfer stations. She noted that the hours may change and that the fee situation is under consideration. "I am opposed to fees but I am just one vote," she emphasized, noting that it might be possible to have lower fees for low-income residents.

It is expensive to operate the landfill, Bronson said, and EPA regulations are adding to the burden. Several people in attendance, including Tracy Taft, Carol Klinefelter, and Lil Jones, voiced concerns about desert trash dumping if fees are initiated. Bronson encouraged everyone to contact her if they see instances of illegal dumping.

Goodman of the Pima County Small Business Commission noted that there was no quorum of the commission so they were not in session. He gave a brief history of the SBC, noting that it was formed because small businesses weren't being heard. It has worked to make sure small local firms aren't passed over in favor of large non-local companies, has worked on ordinances to help local contractors and architects, and is setting up a revolving loan fund for small businesses that find it difficult to access capital and which should be up and going in about 18 months. The commission is also vocal on legislative issues and is looking at the confusing and sometimes excessive credit card fees small businesses face.

Cliff Hunter and Tom Moulton both brought up tourism. Hunter noted about $30,000 to $50,000 of the bed tax comes from Ajo. "We want it to come back to Ajo," he said.

After hearing about the award the SBC gives annually, Taft suggested two awards be given, one to a rural business and the other to an urban. June Nickell inquired if a cash prize went with the award. When it was divulged there was no money associated with it, Bronson and Moulton each offered $500.

Grand marshals picked for July 4th

The theme of the Fourth of July parade this year is patriotism and education, so the parade grand marshals will be the valedictorian and salutatorian of Ajo High School's class of 2013.

"Usually the parade grand marshal is announced just days before the event, but this year, we are making an exception," according to Bryan Blow of the American Legion. "Education has always been foremost in the development of our nation, but currently it is more important than ever."

"This year, to emphasize the importance of education to our nation, it is only fitting that we honor those who are coming up as the next leaders of our nation."

The Ajo American Legion and the VFW are sponsoring the Fourth of July celebration in Ajo.

Cinco de Mayo

The Cinco de Mayo holiday will be celebrated this year on Saturday, May 4, in the Plaza.

Several members of the Pima County Small Business Commission traveled to Ajo to attend Pima County Supervisor Sharon Bronson's business roundtable last Thursday. Shown above are PCSBC commissioner Gabrielle David, Marion Hook of the City of Tucson Small Business Commission; PCSBC chair Ken Goodman, Supervisor Bronson, and PCSBC commissioners Lyra Done, Shelby Hawkins, and Mark Finchem. The group, which had no quorum for an official meeting, also had lunch at the Oasis then toured the new Ajo District Chamber of Commerce and Curley School. They enjoyed the visit so much they plan to return for a visit next year.

John E. "Jack" Breen

John Edward "Jack" Breen, 92, died April 9, 2013, in Phoenix.

He was born January 22, 1921, in Dublin, Texas, to Hugh & Mary Breen. He had two younger siblings, Courtney and Susie.

The family moved to Ajo in 1935 and, since neither of his parents could drive, the 14-year-old chauffeured the family from Temple, Texas, to Ajo. Driving since he was a first-grader, he was one of the youngest carpool drivers ever with a regular pick-up route on his way to school.

He was a member of the Ajo High School Class of 1939 and set a state record in track in the 220 with 22.3 seconds.

After graduation, he went to work for Phelps Dodge as a machinist's apprentice.

In 1941 he joined the US Navy, serving as a machinist on the USS St. Louis until World War II ended. He was the youngest machinist on the ship and was immediately put in charge.

He attended Arizona State College in Tempe where he was asked to teach a machine lathe class and punted for the football team until he graduated. He was a loyal Sun Devil fan and never let his friends forget it.

He and Atala "Pat" Yanez eloped to Yuma on the 4th of July in 1953. This year would have marked their 60th anniversary.

Mr. Breen is best remembered for the years he was the Phelps Dodge employment agent. "He knew every person's specific numbers from memory and could walk up to any person in town and ask them about how each person in their family was doing," recalled his family. "Phelps Dodge counted on Jack to work his magic with negotiators large and small. He cared for the people that worked in the New Cornelia Mine, always."

He was active in many organizations in Ajo and was usually among the first to volunteer for whatever needed to be done. He was a loyal member of the Elks Lodge and was a longtime member of the Ajo Rotary Club.

He was a member of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church.

In his spare time, he enjoyed camping in the desert and target shooting.

His nephew Mike O'Connor says he was sitting with his son Garron on the edge of the desert shortly after Mr. Breen's death when the longest-lasting, biggest meteorite they had ever seen streaked across the evening sky. "Uncle Jack's greatest wish was to have his ashes placed in a fire-cracker on the 4th of July and shot through the heavens," said Mike O'Connor. "This was just the way he wanted it, only better."

Mr. Breen is survived by his wife, Atala "Pat" Breen who is now living in Glendale; by his daughter Teresa McElmury; by his granddaughters Meaghan McElmury Sheppard and Courtney McElmury Mowrer; by his three great-grandsons; and by many other family members and friends.

Services have not yet been scheduled.

Dale Woods

Dale Eldon Woods, 86, died April 17, 2013, with family by his side.

He was born January 25, 1927, in Greensburg, Kansas, to Emma Opal Duncan & Arthur Earl Woods.

He served his country during World War II in the Pacific Theatre with the infantry and 213th MP Company while in Japan.

Mr. Woods worked 31 years for Phelps Dodge in Ajo and taught welding, shop, and mechanical arts at Ajo High School.

In retirement he and his wife Mary traveled the country and settled for four years as caretakers of Mohawk Rest Area located between Casa Grande before returning to Coolidge.

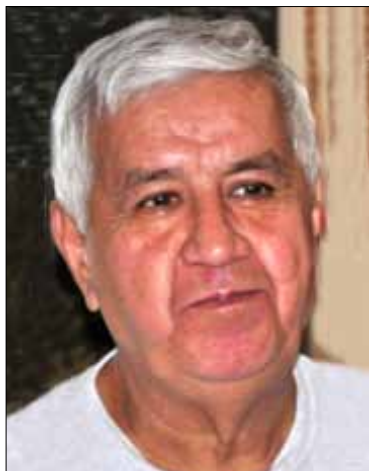

"Dale was a very loving husband and spouse who cared greatly for his family and people," said his family.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 56 years, Mary Woods; by his daughter Patricia Scott; by five of his siblings; by his grandson Eldon Woods Jr, by his granddaughter Lisa; and by one great-granddaughter.

Mr. Woods is survived by his sons Tommy Woods of Ajo, Eldon Woods of Coolidge, and Marlin Woods of Boise City, Oklahoma; by his brother Ray Woods of Sun City West; by his 11 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren; and by several nieces and nephews.

Visitation was to be held on Wednesday, April 24, at Heritage Coolidge Funeral Home, followed by a graveside service at Heritage Valley Memorial Park, led by Pastor Joseph Whitner.

Roland Martinez

Roland Martinez Sr., 70, died Thursday, April 18, 2013, at Hospice of the Valley in Scottsdale.

He was born on October 10, 1942, in Ajo, to Margarito Benjamin & Maria Perez Martinez. He grew up in Ajo with his siblings Beto, Edith, Nono, Rudy, Gerry and Ginny, and after high school served his country in the US Army.

Upon completion of his Army service, Mr. Martinez returned home and married Scylvia Danese in 1966.

He worked for Phelps Dodge and with Scylvia had two children, Angelica and Roland Jr.

After divorce, he moved to Dallas, Texas, where he lived for 32 years.

He was retired from his job as a mechanic, but was busy doting on his grandchildren and helping friends and family when there was a need, said his family.

At the time of his death he was making his home in Phoenix.

"He is truly free now," said his family.

Mr. Martinez is survived by his daughter & son-in-law, Angelica Martinez Ewing & Chris Ewing and their children, Jacob, Joshua, Joseph and Kate Ewing; by his son & daughter-in-law, Roland Martinez Jr., & Mary Margaret Martinez and their children, Zachary, Megan, Noah and Jessica Martinez; by his brothers & sisters-in law, Gilbert & Debby Martinez and Arnoldo & Frances Martinez Sr.; by his sister & brother-in-law, Gerry & Ruben Marentes; by his sister, Ginny Thomas; by his sister-in-law, Patsy Martinez; and his many nephews and nieces and their spouses and children.

He was preceded in death by his father, M.B. Martinez in 1966; his mother, Maria Martinez in 1993; his sister, Edith Westfall in 1995; and his brother, Harold "Rudy" Martinez in 2010.

Visitation will be held on Thursday, April 25, from 9 to 11 a.m. at Douglass Funeral Home followed by a graveside service.

Obituaries

Obituaries are free. Request a form by stopping by the office at 10 Pajaro, mailing a letter to Ajo Copper News, P.O. Box 39, Ajo, AZ 85321; calling 520-387-7688; or sending an e-mail to cunews@cunews.info with Obituary in the subject line.

The Family of James P. McKay would like to express our deepest gratitude and appreciation for all of the love, kindness and thoughtful gestures expressed to us after the passing of our Husband, Father, and Grandfather.

Thank you to the Reverend Rob Johnston, Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church, for the beautiful service and your ongoing love and support of our family. Many thanks to the members of the Presbyterian Church for the food, preparation of the hall, and clean up afterwards. To the members of the other churches in Ajo, thank you for the food you brought to the service as well. It is so wonderful that everyone in the community works together to help each other during this time of need.

Thank you to Pat Cardone from Douglass Funeral Home for doing such a beautiful job and for working with us via computer to make the arrangements so much easier for us.

Thank you to the Ajo Copper News for the lovely obituary.

Our special thanks go to family and friends for the calls, cards, food, visits, and donations to Dad's favorite charities and his church. Thank you to Ajo friends for all of the kind comments on the Ajo Mundo website and Facebook! We were so comforted by all of your generosity and kindness provided to us in so many different ways. Many thanks to those who were able to attend his service from near and far; it meant a lot!

Dad loved Ajo and was proud to call it home for 68 years! We are blessed to have been raised in such a fine community! God Bless you all!

A work crew with The Providence Group, based in Tucson, quickly erected a walk-port cover extending out from the front door of Desert Senita Community Health Center over the weekend.

Desert Senita CEO Fran Driver said the late Marcelene Marrietti bequeathed funds to pay for the addition. A plaque will be posted at the health center honoring Marrietti.

"Along with precious shade, the addition will keep people dry when they get dropped off during seasonal rains and prevent the little floods we used to get in the lobby," said Driver. "The Providence Group has been very professional and efficient, they did a really nice job, and they're willing to come to Ajo to work. What more can I say? It should be noted that, because the gift was so generous, we held several board meetings to determine where it would be most beneficial to the community before deciding on the entrance addition."

Members enrolled in a Phoenix College Field School certification program worked on a number of conservation projects at the Cabeza Prieta National Wildlife Refuge from Tuesday through Friday last week. Standing are refuge intern Paul Torbett, assistant refuge manager Mary Kralovec, Student Conservation Association manager Sally Ferguson, crew leader Mel Hoffman, Rocky Torrez, Stephan Davis, and Cody Primm, and in front are Jazmine Lakey, crew leader Tony Bossler, Jacob Nolde, Matt Leach, and Myriam Soloño.

The 16-week conservation and resource management field schools are sponsored by Phoenix College, the SCA, Bureau of Land Management, and Arizona Call-a-team Youth Resources. Along with the exposure to different land management agencies, students gain experience in field biology, trail restoration, wildland conservation, firefighting, CPR training, chainsaw techniques, and the policy of leave-no-trace. While at the Cabeza Prieta, the group restored lands carved by illegal border-crossing roads, reopened a public-use road that had been closed for repairs, and performed maintenance at a water tank site for endangered Sonoran pronghorn. They also did data collection and GPS mapping, land monitoring to determine the growth of plants in specific areas, cut up dead and downed wood with chainsaws, built new trails, planted trees, and assessed the overall health of refuge lands.

Having recently worked at White Canyon southeast of Phoenix, Copper Mountain near Prescott, Agua Fria National Monument near Flagstaff, and Rio Solado in Phoenix, the group agreed it is exciting to meet people in the different organizations with which they interface.

The SCA works to develop the next generation of conservation leaders through service to the land, noted Ferguson. The program is 56 years old, has 60,000 alums, and views the Phoenix Field School as a flagship program. Youth internships with the SCA are from 12- to 52-weeks long, and members receive AmeriCorps awards for their service.

The Donation Cans are now in place in various businesses in Ajo for our Fourth of July. Money collected will be used only for 4th of July celebrations. It is local business and individuals who put on our Fourth but unfortunately it cannot be done without money. This years theme will be patriotism and education and the best floats that emphasize this will get prizes of $300, $200, and $100.

Businesses with donation cans:

Print Shop in the Plaza, Ajo Community Market, Oasis Cafe, Ajo Flower Shop, Shell Service Station, Ajo Copper News, Rubens Barber Shop, Circle K, Marcellas, Chevron Service Station, Woody's Service Station, K5 Radio Shack, Pizza Hut, Ajo True Value, Dollar General, Napa, Millers Beauty Salon, Don's Green Dragon, Bamboo Village, Ajo Bowling Lanes, Chu Chu Club

Be sure and thank these businesses for doing their part in making Ajo's 4th of July a memorable one for all our children. Not only do national chains not contribute to town activities, they even forbid thier employees from putting cans out for donation. Employees are true Ajo citizens and put them out when supervisors are not present. Thank them!

Ajo Copper News is turning 97

The first issue of the Ajo Copper News bore a dateline of April 29, 1916, making the publication 97 years old next Monday.

Though the newspaper is 97 years old, the volume number shown on the front page of this issue seems to indicate the newspaper is still in its late 80s. No one is sure just why the volume numbers are off but it is suspected there may have been years the volume number wasn't advanced.

In its history, the newspaper has had a handful of publishers and editors, moved a few times, come back from a disastrous fire, and survived some tough times.

Renwick White, encouraged by John C. Greenway and Mike Curley, founded the Ajo Copper News in March 1916 and published the first official issue in April. The first office was located in Clarkston and later was moved to Ajo.

Most of the newspaper files were destroyed when the newspaper office burned down in 1935. Rising from the ashes, the Ajo Copper News was published again after a three-month hiatus.

White was editor & publisher of the Ajo Copper News for 31 years before retiring in 1947. L. T. "Ted" Beggs, who had been working for White, took over the paper. After Beggs' death in 1951, his wife Geraldine Beggs assumed the reins as publisher.

In 1954, George Gable became publisher with his son Barry acting as editor. After George Gable's sudden death from a heart attack in June 1958, Barry Gable became publisher and editor; his wife Lois joined him as business manager and later as assistant publisher.

Richard F. & Ann Hollister David bought the Ajo Copper News from the Gables in 1967

Announcement forms available

The Ajo Copper News has developed forms for items such as births, obituaries, engagements, weddings, and graduations. The staff then writes the article using the information listed on the form. Forms may be picked up at the newspaper office at 10 Pajaro; requested by writing to the Ajo Copper News, PO Box 39, Ajo, AZ 85321; or requested by e-mail to cunews@cunews.info online.

and served as publisher and editor respectively. When they retired in 1983, their son and daughter, Hollister J. "Hop" David and Gabrielle David took over as publisher and editor, positions they still hold today. The other David sibling, Joe, retired from his job in Alabama a few years ago and joined the staff.

Dick David died in July 1983 and Ann followed a decade later.

When Dick & Ann David bought the newspaper, it was located on Pizal where a tiny park is now situated. They moved to 33 Plaza, where the public library is now, in the 1970s. The newspaper offices stayed there until October 1995 when the David family purchased the building at 10 Pajaro.

Joining the Davids on the regular staff of the Ajo Copper News are Michelle Pacheco, Mike Mekelburg, John Peck, Dick Ducic, and Kattie Allen. Robert Sorrels is the sports stringer, Dominique Pacheco helps out when needed, and Teresa Mason keeps the offices tidy. Former staff member Kate Garmise, who tries to remain retired, usually comes in once a week to lend a hand with writing and proofreading chores.

Letter to the editor Plaza draws people to Ajo

Editor:

At a recent dinner party, the conversation turned to how people had found Ajo. The hosts, a professional couple from upstate New York, said that they had compiled a list of eight towns in the Southwest as possible winter homes. They did a road trip to see the towns and chose...Ajo. What made them pick us? It was our Plaza that charmed them with its welcoming greenery and romantic architecture. And, they brought money.

The other morning Bob Boozer told me stories of the Plaza in the 1940s and '50s when the caretaker was an Englishman and acrobat named Ernest "Shorty" Busby, who could walk on his hands and who cut the grass with a hand mower.

Today the Plaza is cared for by Santo Carranza. Anything that any of us can do to make his job easier—pulling weeds, picking up trash, fixing sprinklers—benefits him and all of us who use and love our Plaza—and it boosts our economy. Please help out.

The Ajo-Gibson Volunteer Fire Department was delighted to receive a donation of $1500 from the Elks Lodge. Vern Brand, Exalted Ruler of the lodge, presented the check to Chief David Tibbitt with firefighters Dan Johnson, Johnny Woodson, Richard Russell, Andrew Howard, Kay Kelley, Lieutenant JD Allen, Captain Mark Coyle, and Chad Coyle looking on.

Vern Brand, left, presented a check for $500 from the Ajo Elks Lodge to the Keeping Kids on Track project represented by Rose Cameron, Patti Bush, and Lisa Rossi. Monies raised for the project are used to increase athletic programming in the Ajo Unified School District. Cameron said they were happy for the support of the Elks and the rest of the community, noting much of the credit for the success of the Keep Kids on Track program should go to Mark Coyle and Josie Robles.

Nominations sought for PTSA officers

Fast time took Kevin Gilmartin past Boston finish line just in time

Kevin Gilmartin ran his fourth Boston Marathon a bit faster than prior events. Because of his speed, he had just passed the finish line when the bombs went off and neither he nor his family were hurt.

He told the Arizona Daily Star that they felt the explosions but didn't see the expected chaos but rather a controlled response.

Gilmartin, whose mother, the late Helen Gilmartin, served as justice of the peace in Ajo, is a consulting police psychologist in Tucson. The Star reported he planned to remain in the Boston area to work as police and residents cope with the trauma of the attack.

Red Raiders reached 10-5

By Robert Sorrels

In a week on the road, the Ajo Red Raider baseball team beat Baboquivari Monday and Tonopah Thursday but fell to powerful Yuma Catholic Friday.

Ajo 15, Baboquivari 11

It was a wild game with comebacks, home runs, and suspense. The Warriors scored in the 1st after Ajo struck out in three to open the inning. Ajo came back in the 2nd with two runs on a walk, an error, and singles by Carlos Juarez and Charlie Tapp. Babo roared back with five runs on three hits, three walks, and two wild pitches. Starting pitcher Abiam Campa, who has had an excellent year, seemed to not have his best stuff.

The Raiders got four in the 3rd on a walk, an error, and Tapp and Devon Rendon hits. Baboquivari was scoreless in the bottom. Ajo scored four in the 4th on singles by Ariél Barboa, Campa, and Juarez. Rendon had a two-RBI double. In the bottom of the inning, Campa's problems intensified as Babo scored four on a walk, an error, a wild pitch, and two hits. Josiah Nez relieved him. Babo led 10-9.

Ajo came back in the 5th. Martin Alvarez reached, Nez doubled, and Barboa cleared the fence with a three-RBI homer. Campa added another run on a walk and creative base running. Nez, displaying his best control of the season, set Baboquivari down in order in the 5th and 6th.

In the 7th, Ajo got two on an Alvarez single and a Campa triple. Nez let a Warrior in on a walk, an error, and a hit before putting Babo down. Nez got the win as Barboa, Campa, Alvarez, and Tapp led the offense.

Ajo 8, Tonopah 3

It was a nearly flawless victory over the Division III school and a clear demonstration that Ajo can beat bigger schools. Ajo scored two in the 1st as Tapp reached, Alvarez singled, and Manny George had an RBI single. Rendon was hit, forcing the second run. Tapp handcuffed Tonopah in the first two innings assisted by a Sanford-Nez-George double play.

In the 3rd, Ajo scored five on errors and Tapp and Rendon RBI singles. Tonopah then got on the board on an error, three passed balls, a hit, and a towering sacrifice fly to Alvarez in centerfield. Ajo led 7-2.

Both teams were scoreless in the 4th and 5th as good infield work kept runners off base. In the 6th, Tonopah scored one on walks and good base running. Ajo snuffed the rally with a nice double play. In the 7th, the Raiders got an insurance run on a Juarez hit and an error. Tapp then cut Tonopah down with a strikeout and two clean in-field plays.

Yuma Catholic 17, Ajo 1

Playing the number one Shamrocks is an exercise in eternal optimism facing grim reality. Given the school's ability to select players, they always field powerful teams. As Coach Dave Emmers remarked, "With their personnel, they'll likely beat us 18, 19 times out of 20. But, were we to play our best error-free ball, there are days we could beat them." Unfortunately this wasn't the day for Ajo. They had seven errors and were hammered for 14 hits.

Ajo got one run on an Alvarez hit and a RBI double by Barboa. Other than that, George reached on an error and got on with a single. The game was called in five on the run rule.

Currently the Raiders are 9th in their section. The top eight go to State. Beating Yuma here in their last game would likely put them over the line.

Lady Raiders took one of three

By Robert Sorrels

The Ajo High School softball team beat Baboquivari Monday, lost to Tonopah Thursday, and came back with a great game against Yuma Catholic Friday.

Ajo 27, Baboquivari 18

What a wild one! Coach José Sepulveda shook his head before the start. "Well, I've got nine players." Missing were the hard-hitting freshman Lupita Garcia, out with a broken thumb, and the number one pitcher on eligibility. Mariah Gilmartin and Lindsey Leon stepped up to pitch and catch for the second time ever.

Ajo scored seven in the 1st on Jennifer Guthrie and Ana Rodriquez hits. Babo came back with five. The Raiders racked up three more in the 2nd on Gilmartin and Erika Salcido doubles. Babo got one. Ajo went down in order in the 3rd, as Baboquivari scored five on two hits and multiple walks. It was Babo 11-10.

The Ladies hammered in eight in the 4th on four hits and multiple errors. Babo came back in the bottom with four. Ajo appeared to put the game away in the 5th as they pushed seven runs across on four hits and assorted Warrior miscues. Baboquivari managed a couple of runs in the bottom of the inning, but they were down 25-16.

Ajo picked up runs in the 6th and 7th on three hits. Gilmartin seemed to grow stronger as the game wore on. She hit a batter in the 6th then struck out three straight. In the bottom of the 7th Babo made its last stand getting two runs on fielding errors before good infield play shut them off.

Tonopah 10, Ajo 0

Raider coaches never know which team will show up for a game. Some games "They can play with the best in the state." Others, coaches wonder, "Who are those Ladies in red?" Thursday it was the mystery team. In six innings they were four at-bats over the minimum. Guthrie had a double in the 2nd, Gilmartin a single in the 4th, and Angelica Osuna singled in the 5th. Tonopah only had five strikeouts.

Defensively Ajo made six errors, four in the 1st as Tonopah jumped out 4-0. The team seemed unable to get on track. Pitcher Marissa Harris did a fairly good job trying to keep the Raiders in the game until the bottom of the 6th when she gave up four straight runs. The game was called.

Yuma Catholic 8, Ajo 7 (8 innings)

After the shelling the Ladies took Thursday, Ajo's coaches worried about Yuma. This time the power team showed. Coach Sepulveda deemed it to be "Their best game this season."

Both teams played excellent defense. Ajo had two errors. Unfortunately both led to runs and perhaps cost the game. Yuma struck out four in the first two innings. Yuma got a run in the 1st on a double and a long single but was scoreless in the 2nd. In the 3rd, Jasmine Macias singled, moved on the next play and came home on a Harris single. The Shamrocks got the run back in the bottom of the inning on an error.

Ajo opened the 4th with four runs on singles by Guthrie, Salcido, and Macias. Yuma struck back in the bottom with four on three hits and an error. Undaunted, the Raiders fought back in the 5th with two runs on hits by Harris, Guthrie, and Rodriquez to lead 7-6. Ajo snuffed Yuma in the bottom of the inning and had two out in the bottom of the 6th when a Shamrock homer cleared the fence. Both teams went 3 up, 3 down in the 7th, leaving it 7-7.

Guthrie walked to open the 8th and came home on a Salcido single before Yuma retired the order. Ajo only had to hold. A hit batter and an error put two on. A single tied the game, and a double won it. It was a fiercely fought, well-played game. The Ladies came so close.

RAIDER OF THE WEEK

By Robert Sorrels

Jennifer Guthrie was named Raider of the Week for her outstanding play at first base. Assistant coach Angelina Valenzuela noted, "She really is a team leader and always gives 110%."

While AHS doesn't keep good statistics for its teams, Guthrie has likely set the standard by which Lady Raider first basemen will be judged. She has played every minute of every inning of every game this season. She has not made an error. The first baseman of any ball team is key to its defense. Guthrie is well above average, being credited with 14 unassisted outs and two unassisted double-plays. Offensively she is batting .339. Her favorite moment of the season was her home run. "It was an in-the-park homer. Would've been great if it cleared the fence."

Guthrie plays because, "It's a family tradition. We all have played. I wait all year for softball to start." She has been playing for seven years, always at first base. "People don't realize that the key to winning is good defense."

Guthrie is senior class president and a member of the National Honor Society. English is her favorite subject.

Jennifer is not in a hurry in planning her future. She intends to enroll at Estrella Mountain and take general education courses to see what catches her interest.

Her advice to other ball players and on life in general is "Go play hard because you only get to do it once."

Her parents are Lonnie & Frances Guthrie.

Red Raider golfers won big in Phoenix

By Robert Sorrels

Tuesday, Ajo High School golfers - in one of the biggest wins in their history - won a match held at the Phoenix Encanto course.

Ajo 190, Valley Lutheran 193, Arizona Lutheran, 198, Phoenix Christian 223

Jesús Marcial and Ralph Rendon led Ajo at 46 each. Eitzel Arancón was immediately behind them, carding a 47. Mike Mason and Armando Herrera were a bit farther back at 51 and 52. Mike Mason had the highlight of the day with a birdie at the 7th hole. Co-coach Julie Tiell, who has been with the program since 2003, noted that no Raider team had broken 200, much less posted 190 in her tenure.

This team has taken a remarkable 64 strokes off their opening season score. Tiell noted, "The team has gotten quite good at challenging each other for position. The goal now is to continue to lower individual scores while supporting each other in competition with observations and advice."

While the Raiders have made immense progress, they are still short of qualifying for state. The ranking and requirements for qualification are a bit arcane, but co-coach Brad Harvey noted, "In general a team needs to be shooting in the 165-170 range to qualify. We've a ways to go, but this is a young team that is improving rapidly. Ralph Rendon is our only senior, so the future looks good."

The Raiders' last match of the season is at the exclusive Seville Country Club against three excellent teams. Tiell noted that several of these teams have players who shoot regularly in the 30s. "They will have to play their own game, but hopefully our players will post new personal low scores by playing against strong competition."

Linda Lam presented Brenda Smith, director of the Food Pantry, with over 200 items of food donations from National Library Week, which was April 14-20. The Salazar-Ajo Library food-for-fines program deducted $1 from a library fine for every food item donated, up to $10. Lam said she was delighted that some people donated food for their fines while others who did not have fines just donated. Smith also commented that donations can be dropped off Thursdays between 9 a.m. and noon at the Food Pantry, which is located at the First Assembly of God Church, 950 North Cameron.

American Legion will recognize three veterans

The American Legion of Ajo will be recognizing three veterans who have served their country on Sunday, May 19, at 2 p.m. at the VFW post. Rita Fleckenstein, Myron Bernard, and Eric Barnes, who served in Afghanistan, Korea, and Bosnia, will be honored.

“The diversity of countries involved are proof of the obligations of the US protecting itself and our allies around the world against aggression,” said Bryan Blow, chair of the recognition committee. “It is important that citizens of this country demonstrate their appreciation to the men and women of this country who serve in our military in defending our freedoms. Think of that when you attend the church of your choice, join the political party of your choice, and go to work where you want.”

A potluck will be part of the event, but it is not necessary to take a dish to attend. “But those who contribute, we appreciate it,” Blow added.

Pima County Supervisor Sharon Bronson presented Bryan Blow with a Fourth of July donation of $400. Blow was more than happy to receive funds for the annual event and says he looks forward to the big day.

Ajo input sought on landfill issue

In a letter last week to constituents who had contacted her about the future of the Ajo landfill, Pima County Supervisor Sharon Bronson communicated her own concerns about the complexity of the issue.

“The current Solid Waste functions in Pima County operate at a deficit of nearly $2 million per year,” she said in her letter. “Revenue is not sufficient to offset expenses. Ajo has the only landfill in Pima County that does not charge anyone for disposal of solid waste.”

At the same time, she emphasized, she is concerned about the possibility of illegal dumping in the desert, and how a fee might impact low-income residents.

“The county is going out of the landfill business,” she told a group at a recent Ajo meeting. “I know Ajo is not urban Pima County, but some change seems inevitable.”

The county is looking at hiring a private contractor to manage its solid waste operations, but final decisions about fees or other matters of operation have not been made. The Board of Supervisors will take up the issue at its May 14 meeting, but will only be reviewing the proposed contract at that time.

Bronson said the contractor who bid on the project has proposed operating a compactor/transfer station instead of the landfill in order to reduce solid-waste costs. “I have asked the contractor to attend the Thursday, May 2, WPCCC meeting in Ajo to address the many concerns that have been expressed to our office.” A Bronson spokesman said that 60-65 comments on the landfill have been received at the supervisor’s office. Concerns have ranged from wildcat dumping and yard waste, to the demands of local businesses and property owners doing building rehabilitation.

“I am just one vote on the board – other supervisors need to hear from Ajo residents,” said Bronson. “We will not be taking any action until (Ajo residents) have had the opportunity to be heard and I’ve had the opportunity to fully evaluate the impacts of this proposal.”

Bronson may be contacted by email at district3@pima.gov or by phone at 520-724-8051. Other supervisors and their contacts are:

- Ally Miller, 520-724-2378, district1@pima.gov;

CBP picked up 3000 pounds of marijuana

In two separate incidents near Ajo, Ajo Station Border Patrol agents seized about 3000 pounds of marijuana.

On Friday, agents near Pisinemo found 34 bundles of marijuana abandoned in the desert. The 1, 68 pounds had an estimated street value of $884,000.

On Saturday, Customs & Border Protection Air & Marine helicopter pilots observed three smugglers on ATVs near Growler Valley Road southwest of Ajo. The smugglers fled on foot leaving the ATVs and 25 bundles of dope. Ground agents seized the contraband but were unable to locate the smugglers. The marijuana weighed 1110 pounds and had an estimated street value of $555,000. Two of the ATVs were seized; the third had been reported stolen in Pinal County.

Rules of Civil Procedure ("JRCPC") that apply in your lawsuit. The rules are available in many public libraries, at the courthouse, and online at the Court Rules page of the Arizona Judicial Branch website, at http://www.azcourts.gov/, under the "AZ Supreme Court" tab.

3. A "plaintiff" is someone who files a lawsuit against a "defendant." You must file an answer or other response to the plaintiff's complaint in writing and within twenty (20) days from the date you were served with the summons and complaint (or within (30) days if you were served out-of-state.) If you do not file an answer within this time, the plaintiff may ask the court to enter a "default" and a "default judgment" against you. Your answer must state your defenses to the lawsuit. Answer forms are available at the courthouse, and on the Self-Service Center of Arizona Judicial Branch website at http://www.azcourts.gov/ under the "Public Services" tab. You may prepare your answer electronically at http://www.azturbocourt.gov/; this requires payment of an additional fee. You may also prepare your answer on a plain sheet of paper, but your answer must include the court location, the case number and the names of the parties. You must provide to the plaintiff a copy of any document that you file with the court, including your answer.

4. You may bring a claim against the plaintiff if you have one. When you file your answer or written response with the court, you may also file your "counterclaim" against the plaintiff.

5. You must pay a filing fee to the court when you file your answer. If you cannot afford to pay a filing fee, you may apply to the court for a fee waiver or deferral, but you must still file your answer on time.

6. You may contact the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney and try to reach an agreement to settle the lawsuit. However, until an agreement is reached you must file your answer and participate in the lawsuit. During the lawsuit, the court may require the parties to discuss settlement.

7. Within forty (40) days after your answer has been filed, you and the plaintiff are required to provide a disclosure statement to each other. This disclosure statement provided information about witnesses and exhibits that will be used in the lawsuit. A party may also learn more about the other side's case through discovery. Read the Justice Court Rules of Civil Procedure for more information about disclosure statements and discovery.

8. The court will notify you of all hearing dates and trial dates. You must appear at the time and place specified in each notice. If you fail to appear at a trial or a hearing, the court may enter a judgment against you. To assure that you receive these notices, you must keep the court informed, in writing, of your current address and telephone number until the lawsuit is over.
